

Kongouyen

Common Name

English :

Hindi :

Manipuri : Kongouyen

Scientific Name

Group : Angiosperm (Dicotyledon)

Family : Vitaceae

Genus : Cissus

Species : adnata Roxb.

Habit : Robust climber

Parts Used : Root, Leaf & Tuber

Mode of Preparation : Fresh leaf crushed with water for decoction. Fresh leaves crushed for local application. Dried root ground into powder preparation. Roots boiled for extract.

Mode of use : Decoction and Local Application

Ingredients : Moisture (86%), Crude fat (13%), Total ash (5.4%) are reported.

Ailment Treated: Leaf decoction useful for urinary troubles and stone cases. Crushed leaf useful for local application in bone fracture. Root decoction is blood purifier. Root powder is antiseptic, applied on wounds, cuts and injuries. Decoction of dried tubers is used as diuretic and depurative.

Source: Swampy areas of hills & plains. Not so common.